

AAALAC International in Europe: Approaches to an Ethical Review

MAY 4, 2009, Rome Italy

PROGRAMME:

8.30 – 9.00	Registration
9.00 – 9.10	Welcome. Javier Guillen, Senior Director and Director of European Activities, AAALAC International.
9.10 – 9.30	AAALAC insight. Anne Degryse, Member and Past Officer of the European Section of the AAALAC International Council on Accreditation.
9.30 – 10.00	The use of performance standards. Peter Clausing, Leader of the European Section of the AAALAC International Council on Accreditation.
10.00 – 10.30	Most frequent findings during AAALAC site visits. Harry van Herck, Member of the European Section of the AAALAC International Council on Accreditation.
10.30 - 11.00	Coffee break
11.00 – 11.30	Expectations on the Occupational Health and Safety Programme (OHSP). Bryan Howard, Assistant Leader of the European Section of the AAALAC International Council on Accreditation.
11.30 – 12.00	Most frequent issues related to the OHSP. Richard Fosse, Member of the European Section of the AAALAC International Council on Accreditation.
12.00 – 12.30	Open questions. Members of the European Section of the AAALAC Council on Accreditation.
12.30 – 13.30	Lunch
13.30 – 14.00	Expectations for the Ethical Review. Javier Guillen, Senior Director and Director of European Activities, AAALAC International.
14.00 – 15.00	Perspectives on the Ethical Review in the revised Directive 86/609/EEC. Susanna Louhimies, DG Environment, European Commission.
15.00 – 15.30	Coffee break
15.30 – 17.00	Successful approaches to the Ethical Review by accredited units in Europe.
17.00 – 17.15	Closing remarks. Challenges and opportunities of an international process. Kathryn Bayne, Global Director, AAALAC International.

Venue:

Grand Hotel Palatino
Via Cavour 213/M
00184 Roma, Italy

Fee:

Personnel of accredited institutions: 200 €

Personnel of non-accredited institutions: 250 €